ARA Collateral Recovery and Remarketing Accreditation Program

What:

ARA is pleased to invite you to attend the ARA Collateral Recovery and Remarketing Accreditation Program. We partnered with nationally recognized industry leaders to create an industry-recognized certification program for lenders, our members and their employees. The Accreditation Program for lenders includes:

- The Collection Training Consultants program taught by Steve Peterson
- Data Security and Skip Tracing Class conducted by Alex Price of MasterFiles and Michele Stuart of JAG Investigations
- Intro to Online Collateral Remarketing lead by Zach Hallowell of OPENLANE and Rick O'Connor of SmartAuction
- Best Practices session hosted by various regional business professionals, including DRN, the leader in license plate recognition (LPR) technology

The daylong program also includes a luncheon for all participants.

Why:

Focused on innovation, education and its Best In Class approach, ARA developed the Accreditation Program to provide lenders and members with the opportunity to get trained and certified. The program is a beneficial opportunity to learn how to improve your professionalism and your company's bottom line.
